NB please tick all applicable activities

C. Purpose of Proposed Activity

- Description of activity

Tairāwhiti Museum, in partnership with Tūranga Iwi and Te Aitanga a Hauiti, is organising an exhibition of taonga Māori that were uplifted from Tairāwhiti region by the crew of the Endeavour in 1769. The taonga have been held in private and public collections in Europe for 250 years and this exhibition seeks to bring them back to New Zealand for the first time since they left.

- Species of marine mammal item/part (if known):

Unknown, presumed whale

- Type of marine mammal item/part (eg tooth):

Unknown, bone

- Number of marine mammal items/parts:

9

- How was the marine mammal item/part obtained:

Evidence suggests that the taonga were traded with members of the crew of the Endeavour and were subsequently traded in Europe. Tairāwhiti Museum seeks to obtain the taonga on loan from Cambridge University Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology and Great North Museum: Hancock for a period of one year.

- Proposed dates for import/export if applicable:

Proposed arrival date of taonga from the UK: 23 September 2019

Proposed departure date of taonga back to the UK: 20 October 2020

D. Other

Is there any further information you wish to supply in support of your application?

Please see significance statement attached.

E. Consultation Undertaken

Some applications require consultation with whānau/hapū/iwi (local Māori), and other interested parties. Please contact the nearest Department of Conservation office to discuss what is required. Written expert views, advice or opinions concerning your proposal may also be attached to support the application. Attach any proof of consultation to the application.

This is an iwi-led project delivered in partnership with Tairāwhiti Museum. A governance group – Hei Kanohi Ora – made up of iwi representatives has oversight of the project. See iwi request letter for the taonga to come to Gisborne attached.

F. Fees

Section 60B of the Conservation Act enables the Department to recover all direct and indirect costs from an Applicant to process an application regardless of whether the application is approved or declined. If at any stage an application is withdrawn the Department will invoice the Applicant for the costs incurred by the Department up to that point. Applicants are required to pay the processing fees within 28 days of receiving an invoice. The Director-General is entitled to recover any unpaid fees as a debt.

We will send you an estimate of fees before they are incurred and invoice you once we have processed your application. Please contact us for further information.

Waiving or Reducing Fees:

The Director-General of Conservation has discretion to reduce or waive processing fees.

You may apply for a fee waiver or reduction if you provide information to the permissions team about how your application meets at least one of these criteria:

- The activity will make a direct contribution to management
- The activity will support or contribute to the Department's priority outcomes – which are stated in the Department's 2013-2017 Statement of Intent (available on the DOC website)
- There will be other non-commercial public benefits from the permission (if approved)
- Activity covered by the authorisation (other than research, collection or educational activities) will make a contribution to the management of, or the public interest in, the lands that are covered by the permit

Paying fees:

The Department will ordinarily invoice the applicant for processing fees after a decision has been made on the application, but in some cases interim invoices will be issued.
