

Application for the import, export, and re-export of PERSONAL EFFECTS of specimens subject to the Trade in Endangered Species Act 1989

1. Use this form for personal and household items only. Please use different forms for live animals, or commercial and scientific/zoo trade of non-live animals, plants, and specimen lot applications.
2. Only complete and legible forms will be processed. Please allow 20 working days.
3. Many wildlife items may require approval under other DOC administered legislation. In particular:
 - exports of any bird, reptile, amphibian or bat, or parts of such species (Wildlife Act 1953: contact permissionshamilton@doc.govt.nz)
 - marine mammals such as dolphins, seals and whales (Marine Mammals Protection Act 1978: contact permissionschristchurch@doc.govt.nz)
4. There are also Ministry for Primary Industries regulations governing the import and export of some plant and animal items. Please contact MPI (www.mpi.govt.nz) for further information.
5. After you submit your application, a CITES officer will contact you to provide details on how to pay the application fee. Payment must be made within 7 working days, otherwise the application will not be progressed. CITES officers may also request any other information necessary to support your application.
6. Please note CITES permits are only valid for one consignment up to six months from the date of issue.
7. Once your application is approved and your permit/certificate is sent to you the original CITES documentation must accompany the items on export/import. For more information please see www.doc.govt.nz/cites

To complete the form electronically

1. Open the form in Adobe Acrobat
2. Click the Tools menu in the top left
3. Open Fill & Sign
4. Click in a text field and begin typing. For fields with multiple lines (e.g. addresses) use 'Enter' to move to the next line underneath.
5. Save the PDF to your digital device

Application submission

Please submit all applications via email to the following address cites@doc.govt.nz.

Applications can be sent via postal mail if needed – contact cites@doc.govt.nz for the relevant CITES address nearest your location.

NOTE REGARDING PERMITS AT TIME OF EXPORT:

Export and re-export permits must be validated upon departure from New Zealand by the NZ Customs Service.

If the permit is not validated, your specimen(s) may be confiscated upon entry into the destination country. If this happens, DOC has no recourse to secure the release of the specimen(s).
