

Figure 3. Map showing filtered PTT fixes and routes for two consecutive foraging trips made by the same bird. The red star shows the location of South West Cape, and bathymetric contours are at 500 m intervals to 7,000 m. The bird is assumed to travel in straight lines between two accepted locations.