

Figure 7 Peraxilla tetrapetala M13 at Littles Clearing. Deliberately left uncaged, this mistletoe has been browsed on occasion by both possums and deer. Nevertheless it has grown overall, especially out of deer reach, showing that the bait station regime of possum control has worked. Above: December 1994. Below: January 1997. Photos Geoff Walls.

